Letter from E.C.Wood Esq., I.C.S., Collector of Bellary Rc. A.4-271/38 dated 5th March 1938.

Subject:-

Pension- Compassionte gratuity- Taramma Paul- Widow of late Samuel Paul, Head clerk, Bench Court, Bellary- Petition- Recommended.

Samuel Paul, Head clerk, Bench Court, Bellary died on 12-3-1937 after rendering pensionable service of 16 years. He leaves behind, his widow Taramma Paul, aged 39 years and 4 sons and 5 daughters of whom the eldest is married and living with her husband. The remaining 8 children are minors under the care of their mother. The deceased has left a house worth Rs.500/- The record of enquiry shows that the heirs of the deceased got Rs.624/4 from a Mutual Benefit Fund, that a part of it has been spent in liquidating the debts of the deceased and that the balance is set apart for the educational training of the third daughter. As the widow has nothing besides this to support her children, she requests that she may be granted compassionate gratuity admissible under the rules, in view of her husband's long and faithful service.

2. I recommend that gratuity of Rs.500/- may be sanctioned to her by the Provincial Government, under rules 5 and 7 of the Madras Compassionate Gratuities rules 1932- G.O. No. 120 Fin. Finance (Pension) dated 22nd March 1932.

Respected Sir,

My husband Mr.Samuel Paul, was Head-clerk of Bench Court, Bellary on a pay of Rs.52/-. Last Friday, i.e. on 12-3-1937, he died of heart failure at about 10 A.M when he was about to go to office. He was attending office every morning (even during holidays) from 8 A.M. to 11 A.M., coming home for meals for an hour and then returning to office at 12 noon. Obessed with the sense of duty, and keeping of no arrears, he was devoting almost all his time to office work. His integrity and honesty are unquestioned. His devotion to duty was unbounded. On 12-3-1937, he returned home from shandy after making purchases and was about to leave home for office, when he suddenly died. He died in harness of service as it were. At the time of his death he had put in nearly 30 years service. I am left without any means for future livelihood and for the education of my eight children (four male and four female) who are all minors under my protection. The ages of male children are 7, 9, 11 and 17 and the ages of famale children , 3,5,14 and 16 All are studying in Educational institutions. My aged daughter are unmarried. My husband has not left me anything because of the small pay he used to get. He has not insured his life nor has he invested anything in Banks or elsewhere. I am left helpless.

I humbly beg you Sir to take pity on my helpless condition and that of my children and grant me the gratuity that I may be entitled to according to the rules.

Respected Sir,
Your most Obedient Servant,

Bellary.
18th March '37.

Submitted through the Sub-Divl Magistrate Bellary.

The late Mr Samuel Paul worked ably, ~~[illegible]~~ and honestly. It was a fact that he worked in almost all holidays, including Sundays. His Conduct was exemplary.

The Petitioner, the wife of the deceased clerk, is, I hear from reliable sources, in very bad Circumstances and therefore appears to be deserving of the Compassionate Gratuity referred to in G.O. No 120, dated 22nd March 1932. I venture therefore to recommend the request of the Petitioner for very favourable Consideration.
